

A Great Place to Live, Work, & Play!

CITY OF PASCAGOULA COMMUNITY PROFILE

The City of Pascagoula, one of Mississippi's largest cities, is the Seat of Jackson County. The village of Pascagoula was incorporated in 1838. In 1904, Pascagoula and the village of Scranton, which had formed around the railroad station now located in downtown Pascagoula, were combined and incorporated as the City of Pascagoula. Pascagoula is home to the largest employer in the state, Huntington Ingalls Shipbuilding.

www.cityofpascagoula.com

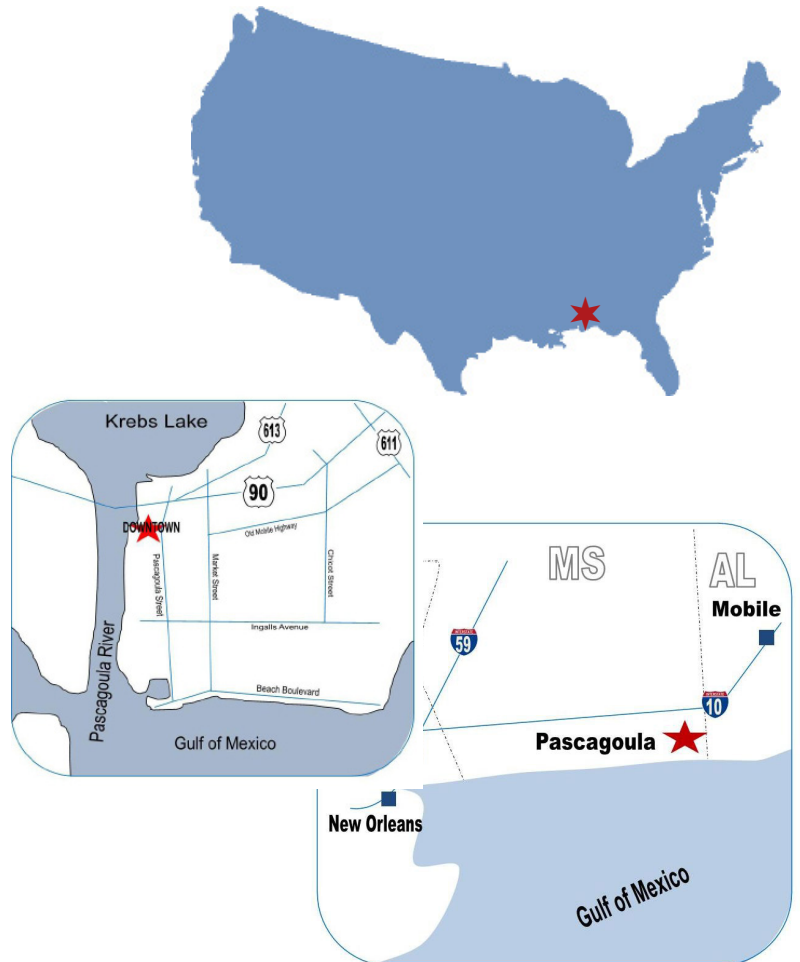

Pascagoula Quick Facts

Population-2010	22392
Median Age	34.97
Households	8481
Median Household Income (2012)	$40,998
Incorporated Square Miles	15.38
Acres of Parks	200
Median House Value	$104,440
Organization Budget	$25,000,000
Population Estimate-2030	30,250

Services: Police, Water, Sewer, Street, Storm Drainage, Parks, Recreation, Open Space

In travel time, the City is located thirty minutes east of Biloxi, Mississippi and two hours east of New Orleans, Louisiana. The City is thirty minutes west of Mobile, Alabama and four hours south of Jackson, Mississippi. With Highways 90, 613, and 63 transversing it, Pascagoula can easily access Interstate 10 just to its north.

- 30 Minutes to Biloxi, Mississippi
- 30 Minutes to Mobile, Alabama
- 2 hours to New Orleans, Louisiana

LABOR FORCE

The City of Pascagoula is the county seat of Jackson County, which is the third most populous county in Mississippi and is home to the state's largest employer, Ingalls Shipbuilding. Numerous Jackson County employers—including Chevron, Ingalls Shipbuilding and countless others—build their success with the help of a remarkable pool of employees who deliver top quality in often-complex positions.

Businesses with operations in Jackson County, Mississippi can count on motivated employees who are committed to their work and proud of their community's reputation for excellence.

Major Area Employers		No. Employees
1	Huntington Ingalls Shipbuilding	10380
2	Chevron Refinery	3600
3	Singing River Health System	2465
4	Signal International	2250
5	VT Halter Marine	675
6	Wal-Mart Pascagoula	500
7	City of Pascagoula	300
8	Knights Marine	240
9	Mississippi Phosphates	225
10	First Chemical	160

Median Household Income
Pascagoula	$40,998
Mississippi	$37,881
United States	$51,914

Household & Population Estimates

EDUCATION

Pascagoula's population is educated, affluent, skilled diverse and dynamic. For three consecutive years, the Pascagoula-Gautier School District has been named one of America's Promise Alliance's 100 Best Communities for Young People. The national award was given to Pascagoula-Gautier School District to recognize its outstanding and innovative work in addressing the high school dropout crisis and for its programs and services that make it an outstanding place for youth to live, learn and grow.

For more information visit our website at
www.cityofpascagoula.com

Pascagoula-Gautier School District

Applied Technology Center
Arlington Elementary
Beach Elementary
Central Elementary
Cherokee Elementary
Colmer Middle School
Eastlawn Elementary
Jackson County Exceptional School
Jackson Elementary
Lake Elementary
Opportunity Center
Pascagoula High School
Trent Lott Academy

College/University

MS Gulf Coast Community College
University of Southern Mississippi Gulf Coast
William Carey University on the Coast
University of South Alabama
Spring Hill College
University of Mobile

Private Education

Resurrection Catholic Elementary
Resurrection Catholic Middle and High School
Bethel Christian Academy
Grace Christian School

Economic Development

Department of Community and Economic Development is working to bring all possible opportunities to the City. In addition, one of the focuses of the Pascagoula Main Street Program is Economic Restructuring to strategically attract new developments. These groups work in unison with other City departments including the Planning and Building Department to ease the process of permitting, zoning, and incentives.

For more information, please contact the Community and Economic Development Director, Jen Dearman, at (228) 938-6651 or jdearman@cityofpascagoula.com.

Medical Facilities

Singing River Health Systems

Singing River Health System is a governmental entity organized and existing pursuant to the community hospital statutes of the State of Mississippi operating as a not-for-profit organization. Singing River Health System is one of the largest employers on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, providing jobs for more than 2,700 residents of Jackson County and surrounding areas. SRHS provided $185 million for employees' salaries and benefits in 2011. Direct and indirect impact from SRHS on Jackson County is an estimated 4,050 jobs and $259 million per year in wages.