May, 2012

Dear Friends:

The Month of May is designated "Older Americans Month" and to celebrate, we will take our Tuesday Lunch outside on May 15! We want to emphasize the importance of developing ways to get and stay fit so we can become "EVEN OLDER AMERICANS". We have a beautiful building that is very comfortable, but we also have a beautiful green space outdoors that we can also enjoy. Come and celebrate the Month of May with us as we serve lunch and enjoy the great outdoors overlooking the pond just outside the back door!!

Many thanks to Triad President, Irma Martin and that organization's effort in organizing the "Scam Slam" that we hosted last week. Over 200 people attended. The committee's hope is that we, as senior adults, have become even more aware that there are those among us who "wear masks" and will actually try to "Scam" us out of our hard, earned money. Thanks to the event speakers, Mr. Mark Spicer from the District Attorney's Office, Officer Diane Schmidt from the Gautier Police Dept., Robert McBeath from Ocean Spring Nursing Center, Joey Tracy and Todd Lafferty from Hancock Bank. Thanks to food sponsors Nicole Etheridge from Singing River Rehab and Karen Pyle from Ocean Springs Nursing Center. If you ever have any doubt about a transaction, or giving out information, please don't do it!

Many thanks to SSG Andrew L. Pickens, SSG Milton Ricks, Jr., SGT Mark Ciesielski, SP/C Casey Moeger and SP/C William Herrington, our men from the 859TH VERT CO of the Mississippi ARMY National Guard who prepared lunch for us on Tuesday, April 24. Also thanks to Tammy Howell of Humana for having Bingo for us that same day!

LUNCH BUNCH – We enjoyed our March visit to the Davis Bayou Area of the Gulf Islands National Seashore, the Walter Anderson Museum of Art and Mediterraneo for lunch. We also enjoyed our April adventure to the Armed Forces Retirement Home and a drive thru at the V.A. Center, The Salvation Army's Kroc Center, with lunch @ the Beau. "What ever will they have us do THIS month??" You never know! Sign up to find out!

LUNCH BUNCH FOR MAY - Wednesday, May 23. $20 per person. This event usually sells out quickly so early registration is encouraged. Never been? Come and Join us! It's always an adventure.

OCEAN SPRINGS HEALTH FAIR – Wed., May 16, 9am-1pm, Ocean Springs Civic Center. We will leave the center at 9am and return by 1pm. (In time for War Horse, our movie.) They will offer exhibits, health screenings, food, entertainment and door prizes. Call 769-8329 to ride with us. Limited spaces. No cost.

FALL TRIP – We are working out details, but have made the route and set the dates for our 2012 Fall Trip. Dates are October 3-12. Destinations include Bardstown and Louisville, Kentucky – bourbon, baseball and Church Hill Downs; South Bend, Indiana (Notre Dame); Chicago – Architecture and culture; Springfield, IL – Lincoln and Rt. 66; St. Louis – the Blues; and Memphis – more Blues. Details, including trip price will be available May 7. Call if you are interested, 769-8329.

NEW MEN'S BIBLE STUDY CLASS – This will meet on Wed., 11:30-12:30pm or Fri. 6-7pm beginning May 16. Bro. Brad Asbury will lead the class. Come to the first class and meet Bro. Brad and see if this is for you. He plans only to share the truth from scripture. The class is non-denominational. "I am not a Pastor or an Evangelist", Brother Brad states, "My calling is an old school Bible teacher of the truth as revealed in God's word". Please call us to pre-register. There is no fee and no workbook; bring your bible.

VOICES OF MOBILE – The Pascagoula High School Choral Ensemble will perform with the "Voices of Mobile" from the University of Mobile. This performance will be Tuesday, May 1, 7pm at First Baptist Church in Pascagoula.

LIVE OAK ARTS FESTIVAL – May, 12. This is the 3rd annual event and will be held in the downtown area. Event organizers are "Celebrating Pascagoula's Heritage" with their inaugural bread baking contest. They will also offer art vendors, local food favorites, classic cars, children's activities, entertainment and loads of culture and fun. For more information, call Rebecca at 938-6604.
