

EXPLORE Pascagoula RIVER BLUEWAY

Points of Interest:

- Bennett Bayou, Land Trust Conservation Preserve is home to the current Pascagoula River Audubon Center, PRAC. Visit the PRAC, to experience the rich river environment. $N30^{\circ}26'37.78''$ $W88^{\circ}33'3.31''$
- The Mouth of Bennett Bayou covers five acres and is a direct tributary to the Pascagoula River. $N30^{\circ}26'21.93''$ $W88^{\circ}33'25.71''$
- I-10 Launch offers easy access and a boat launch. $N30^{\circ}26'14.60''$ $W88^{\circ}33'27.26''$
- Home to both shopping and dining, Downtown Moss Point includes a riverwalk and park. $N30^{\circ}24'52.94''$ $W88^{\circ}32'16.66''$
- The Pascagoula River Audubon Center will relocate to 5107 Arthur Street in Moss Point by 2013. $N30^{\circ}24'55.34''$ $W88^{\circ}32'36.28''$
- Bellview Street is a small neighborhood boat launch with paved parking. $N30^{\circ}24'38.02''$ $W88^{\circ}33'35.14''$
- Choctaw Marina is located on Hemlock Avenue near Griffin Street and accesses McInnis Bayou. $N30^{\circ}23'59.12''$ $W88^{\circ}33'20.09''$
- The Mouth of McInnis Bayou provides access to the lower end of McInnis Bayou for fishing and exploring marshes. $N30^{\circ}23'24.45''$ $W88^{\circ}33'51.82''$
- Accessible from Lake Avenue near the Lake Avenue Fire Station, Mariner's Cove offers boat slips. $N30^{\circ}22'45.27''$ $W88^{\circ}32'56.67''$
- Next to the LaPointe-Krebs House lies the Krebs Cemetery, where many of the first settlers of the area are buried. $N30^{\circ}22'50.60''$ $W88^{\circ}33'27.10''$
- As the oldest standing building in the Mississippi Valley, the LaPointe-Krebs House is an example of French Colonial architecture and is the earliest settlement in Pascagoula. $N30^{\circ}22'49.80''$ $W88^{\circ}33'29.27''$
- In the near future, the Pascagoula River Park will gain some exciting renovations including an amphitheater and the recently renovated Scranton Floating Museum. $N30^{\circ}22'26.75''$ $W88^{\circ}33'50.74''$
- The Lighthouse Park holds the soon-to-be restored 1859 Round Island Lighthouse and many recreational amenities. $N30^{\circ}22'17.15''$ $W88^{\circ}33'39.93''$
- The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) Gulf Marine Support Facility and Mississippi Laboratory is the home port of the NOAA ships Gordon Gunter and Pisces. $N30^{\circ}21'58.69''$ $W88^{\circ}33'47.81''$
- The Pascagoula Riverfront will soon be developed into a mixed-use economic hub with retail, restaurant, and residential space. $N30^{\circ}21'53.68''$ $W88^{\circ}33'49.51''$
- The Magnolia Street Birding Pier will be accessible from Magnolia Street and Dupont Avenue and home to brown pelicans, herons, and egrets. $N30^{\circ}21'42.96''$ $W88^{\circ}33'36.22''$

Pascagoula River Blueway

-  Points of Interest
-  Piers
-  Blueway Trail
-  Mileage
-  Boat Launch
-  Food & Drinks
-  Parking
-  Facilities
-  Picnicking

The Blueway Trail takes approximately 6 hours to complete. The trail offers touring of Krebs Lake and the river's edge with an optional western route where more advanced paddlers can explore the marshes along the open channel.

